

Blessing of Wisdom and Knowledge

May you come to the understanding of the true balance of wisdom and knowledge.

May it flow within you.

*May you understand the flow of wisdom and the ebb of knowledge
and that when they are in balance truth occurs and you become that truth.*

May you be blessed with the fountain of knowledge tempered by the vessel of wisdom.

*May this become the place you speak from, your first response,
your solving of all matters and the place you leave from.*

May you come to know knowledge and wisdom well.

May they become like the blood in your body, a balanced stream, useful in all you do.

Finally may a synergistic flow, of both wisdom and knowledge, always be found within every deed done and word spoken, as you move through this life you came to live.
